JOINT OSO/OPC TRAINING COMMITTEE
MINUTES
18 May 1949

Present: 25X1A9a

Recording Secretary
(Para. 1 & 2)
(para. 1 & 2)

1. Present OPC Instructor Personnel. In view of 25X1A9a forthcoming assignment to assessment duties exclusively, and the necessity for the OPC staff to take over some of his present duties,
the following assignments were suggested:

a. Miss 25X1A9a is to take over the management of the OSO/OPC Administrative Courses. She will retain membership on the Committee, but will be relieved of the other duties in regard to training, except for assistance in the Basic Course commencing 23 May 1949.

b. Mr. 25X1A9a is to take over the liaison with the Foreign Service Institute and other language training facilities for both OSO and OPC.

c. Mrs. 25X1A9a will temporarily act as OPC liaison with the students in the uncleared pool and schedule
training for OPC personnel.

d. Messrs. 25X1A9a will become Basic Course instructors upon completion of the current Advanced Course.
They will also assist the advanced course instructors in problem work.

2. OPC Students in BITC XIX. It was agreed that on the basis of the participation in instruction of Miss 25X1A9a Mr. 25X1A9a
four full-time and one part-time OPC students could be enrolled in BITC XIX, commencing 23 May 1949.
Although the entire class will be security-cleared, lectures and reading will continue to be at the "restricted" level only. One OPC auditor who is not security-cleared may be entered provided TRS/OSO receives a statement from Mr. 25X1A9a requesting his entrance on the basis of his previous exposure to CIA information.

3. Joint Course Titles. The joint intelligence courses will be referred to in the future as basic and advanced, with the separate OSO course referred to as the "Special Operations Course."
